Event name: Drawing classes for street children by Community Crew Department of Geography and NSS unit, Rammohan College

Brief description: Drawing classes for street children was conducted by the community crew Department of Geography in collaboration with the NSS unit, Rammohan College on 11th April 2023 and 25th April 2023. The programme was planned and executed by Prof. Madhumita Chatterjee, Department of Geography, Prof. Sibnath Sarkar, Head Department of Geography. Prof. Manabendra Saha from the NSS Unit and Prof. Tanushree Murmu Programme Officer, NSS Unit of Rammohan College gave their valuable support. Prof Madhumita Chatterjee took special efforts to convince the mothers of the 10 children from the pavement shanties on Raja Rammohan Sarani to send their children for the classes. With the existing rapport she has with the children through her personal voluntary social service over the last 5 years, Prof Madhumita Chatterjee encouraged and inspired the street children to come to the drawing classes scheduled from 9.30 am to 11 .30 am on both the days. 6 students from Geography Honours Semester who have trained in art, engaged the children in making lovely and simple colourful drawings. The theme was national flag on 11th April 2023 and drawing with letters on 25th April 2023.4
