ONE DAY ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

On

“The Role of Library in Empowering Women with their Rights”

Organised By

The Rammohan College Library, The Department of English and IQAC, Rammohan College

In Collaboration With

We For All

Date: 08.06.2023 (Thursday), Venue: New Science Building Premises, Rammohan College

The Rammohan College Library along with the Department of English and IQAC, Rammohan College in collaboration with We For All has organised a One Day Orientation Programme on “The Role of Library in Empowering Women with Their Rights” on 08.06.2023 (Thursday) at the New Science Building Premises of the College. Undergraduate students from different departments of the college took part in this programme which turned out to be a big success.

The entire programme was coordinated by the Resource Persons of both the participating and the host institutions. Since women empowerment is one of the most crucial issues in today’s world, Rammohan College, being a women’s college, always strives to promote the concept of gender equality and women emancipation through different events. Hence, from this perspective, this programme has been very relevant in terms of strengthening the ideas of women education, learning, fight against oppression and exploitation, social and economic independence of women— where Library assumes to play a very significant role.

The lectures delivered by the Resource Persons have been very enlightening and thought provoking and the students very enthusiastically took part in the interactive sessions which were very illuminating.

An Orientation Cum Workshop
On
Communicative English and Personality Development
Organised By
The Department of English and IQAC, Rammohan College
In Collaboration With
We For All

Date: 24.11.2023 (Friday), Venue: New Science Building Premises, Rammohan College

The Department of English and IQAC, Rammohan College in collaboration with We For All has organised a One Day Orientation Programme Cum Workshop on Communicative English and Personality Development on 24.11.2023 (Friday) at the New Science Building Premises of the College. Undergraduate students from different departments of the college took part in this programme which actually was a stepping stone towards a short term certificate course to be introduced to the students soon.

The entire programme was coordinated by the instructors and educators of the We For All Team and the Faculty of the Department of English. On the one hand, the students were introduced with the fundamental ideas and knowledge of the importance and relevance of Communicative English, its different aspects and modules; on the other, they were made familiar with the basic concepts of soft skill learning as well as the various means and methods of personality development.

The students enthusiastically took part in different activities designed by the instructors which actually worked as the practical execution of the different theoretical knowledge imparted to the students in the first session of the programme. This Orientation Cum Workshop Programme had been successful enough in generating positive interests among the students, who had shown keen interest in enrolling themselves in the forthcoming short term certificate course on Communicative English to be conducted by the Department of English and We For All. This Workshop as well as the forthcoming short term course have been designed to enhance the communicative skill among the students as well as to make them enable and confident in different professional sectors in future.
